Travel refrigerators

Exclusive importer and distributor in Switzerland of Indel B products.

In early 2003 , Alumetal entered into a agreement with this leading refrigeration industry company.

Indel B belongs to the Berloni group and specialises in the production of travel refrigerators.

This is a complete line of products that caters for the needs of a very diversified customer base.

These refrigerator Boxes, available in different sizes and powers, are installed systematically in trucks, utility vehicles of various types, vans, motor vehicles, boats, camping vehicles etc.

They are also very widely used in the pharmaceutical industry, in medical test laboratories and in hospitals for carrying laboratory samples.

They can operate at both 220-230V and 12-24V (for use on vehicles)
